Important Information

Please read this and sign on the other side.

As a result of British Columbia's Personal Information Protection Act (PIPA), dated January 1, 2004, we must inform members joining after that date the reason(s) why we collect, use and disclose their personal information. The Qualicum Beach Seniors' Activity Centre collects and uses your name, address, telephone number and email address to fulfil the following:

To maintain a register of members, to identify and contact members, issue receipts for dues and issue membership cards.

2.

To mail centre newsletters, contact kitchen volunteers, advise members of trips or functions, pick up door-to-door on some trips, publish names and/or photos in newspapers or centre historical records and mail "get well" card to sick members.

Access to personal information is restricted to centre members requiring it during the performance of their duties. It is not available in any form to outside agencies or persons except when required to inform travel agencies of members signing up for trips and/or activities. Names may be displayed in public areas of the Centre.

Please indicate whether you agree with this use of your personal information and sign on the other side.
